Protected Time for Program Director

II.A.2.

The program director and, as applicable, the program’s leadership team, must be provided with support adequate for administration of the program based upon its size and configuration.

At a minimum, the program director must be provided with the salary support required to devote 20 percent FTE of non-clinical time to the administration of the program.

[The Review Committee must further specify minimum dedicated time for program administration, and will determine whether program leadership refers to the program director or both the program director and associate/assistant program director(s).]

[The Review Committee may further specify if the Review Committee specifies support greater than 20 percent, II.A.2. and the accompanying Background and Intent will be modified to reflect the level of support specified by the Review Committee]

[The Review Committee may further specify regarding support for associate program director(s)]

Protected Time for Program Coordinators

II.C.2.

The program coordinator must be provided with dedicated time and support adequate for administration of the program based upon its size and configuration. [Core]

At a minimum, the program coordinator must be supported at 50 percent FTE for the administration of the program. [Core]

[The Review Committee must further specify minimum dedicated time for the program coordinator.]

[The Review Committee may further specify. If the Review Committee specifies support greater than 50 percent, II.C.2 and the accompanying Background and Intent will be modified to reflect the level of support specified by the Review Committee]

Protected Time for Program Coordinators

Background and Intent: Fifty percent FTE is defined as two and a half (2.5) days per week.

The requirement does not address the source of funding required to provide the specified salary support.

Each program requires a lead administrative person, frequently referred to as a program coordinator, administrator, or as otherwise titled by the institution. This person will frequently manage the day-to-day operations of the program and serve as an important liaison with and facilitator between the learners, faculty and other staff members, and the ACGME. Individuals serving in this role are recognized as program coordinators by the ACGME.

The program coordinator is a key member of the leadership team and is critical to the success of the program. As such, the program coordinator must possess skills in leadership and personnel management appropriate to the complexity of the program. Program coordinators are expected to develop unique in-depth knowledge of the ACGME and Program Requirements, including policies, and procedures. Program coordinators assist the program director in meeting accreditation efforts, requirements, educational programming, and support of residents.

Programs, in partnership with their Sponsoring institutions, should encourage the professional development of their program coordinators and avail them of opportunities for both professional and personal growth. Programs with fewer residents may not require a full-time coordinator; one coordinator may support more than one program.
Dedicated Time

- To be reviewed by RRC for specific support for Allergy and Immunology

Post-COVID-19: Tele-supervision effective July 2021

VI.A.2.c) Levels of Supervision

To promote appropriate resident supervision while providing for graded authority and responsibility, the program must use the following classification of supervision: (Core)

VI.A.2.c).(1) Direct Supervision:

VI.A.2.c).(1).(a) the supervising physician is physically present with the resident during the key portions of the patient interaction; or (Core)

VI.A.2.c).(1).(a).(I) PGY-1 residents must initially be supervised directly, only as described in VI.A.2.c).(1).(a). (Core)
Tele-supervision effective July 2021

VI.A.2.c).(1).(b) the supervising physician and/or patient is not physically present with the resident and the supervising physician is concurrently monitoring the patient care through appropriate telecommunication technology. (Core)

VI.A.2.c).(1).(b).(i) When residents are supervised directly through telecommunication technology, the supervising physician and the resident must interact directly to solicit the key points of allergy and immunology elements of the visit and agree upon a management plan. (Delineate)

VI.A.2.c).(2) Indirect Supervision: the supervising physician is not providing physical or concurrent visual or audio supervision but is immediately available to the resident for guidance and is available to provide appropriate direct supervision. (Core)

VI.A.2.c).(3) Oversight – the supervising physician is available to provide review of procedures/encounters with feedback provided after care is delivered. (Core)

COVID-19 and the ACGME: Quality over Quantity

- Assessing fellow competency and the role of the program director
- Developing fellow learning plan if needed to address any competency gaps
- Use of Procedures and what is acceptable (ways to address lower numbers of procedures)

Site Visit

The ACGME has suspended in-person accreditation site visits. Click here for information about remote accreditation and recognition site visits.

The Accreditation and Recognition Site Visit
The accreditation and recognition process for Sponsoring Institutions and programs includes on-site and remote site visits to assess compliance with the Institutional and Program Requirements, as applicable. All accreditation and recognition site visits for Sponsoring Institutions and programs are performed by Accreditation Field Representatives who are employed by the ACGME.

Refer to the Quick Links on the right side of the page for more information about Accreditation and recognition site visits.
Site Visit Update

• Site Visits Now Virtual
• Postponement of Self Study Site Visits During Pandemic
• Still required to complete self studies, with visits to follow once date placed

Thank You!
