Conflict Resolution: A) Full disclosure at start of any presentation or declaration of COI in any manuscript

B) Recusal when deemed appropriate

C) Use of generic product names for elemental formula and no mention of brand name unless specifically used in a study being discussed

D) I am bound by multiple non-disclosure and confidentiality agreements regarding much of the consulting work I do, and generally only refer to such products in the course of discussion of evidenced based research for didactic purposes in lectures.

E) I am willing to have a personal discussion with any person reviewing my list for a speaking engagement who feels I have any potential COI that requires additional steps. I will practice full transparency.
