Physician CME Credits

Accreditation Statement (Jointly Sponsored)

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint-sponsorship of the American Academy of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology (AAAAI) and The Mastocytosis Society, Inc. The AAAAI is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

CME Designation Statement

The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma & Immunology designates this live activity for a maximum number of 8.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CE Designation Statement

The American Academy of Allergy, Asthma, & Immunology (AAAAI) is a Provider, approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider #10704, for up to 9.60 Contact Hours.

How to Register for CME Day:

Registration is two-step process. Please make sure you complete both steps prior to the conference in order to receive your credits from AAAAI.

Step 1: Provide your name, address, phone, and email to TMS and submit a payment of $75.00 either by using the form included in this brochure and mailing a check made out to TMS or by registering and paying at www.tmsforacure.org.

Step 2: In order to obtain CME and/or CE credits, you must also contact the AAAAI PRIOR to the onset of the conference by going to <http://education.aaaai.org> and selecting which activity you are registering for out of the Education Catalog— "October 27, 2011 Physician Allied Health CME Day." After you register with TMS, you will receive a registration email with a AAAAI code for the specific program for which you are applying for CME credits.

At the AAAAI website you will be directed to complete a pretest which you must take and submit, along with the other registration materials prior to the conference. Please note that after the program, you will be required to take a post-test and complete an evaluation in order to claim credit.

If you have any questions about the AAAAI registration, please contact Jamie Sattler at (414) 272-6071 or by email at jsattler@aaaai.org.

The Mastocytosis Society, Inc. is proud to be a member of NORD.

The 17th Annual TMS Conference

Don't forget to join us for the 2011 TMS Conference October 27-30, at the Holiday Inn Boston Brookline, and the 2011 Walk-A-Thon on Saturday October 29, 2011 at Castle Island! Additional CE credits for nurses are available for the TMS three day conference, October 28-30, 2011. To find out more details and register for these events, visit us at www.tmsforacure.org.

The Mastocytosis Society, Inc. Mission

The Mastocytosis Society is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting patients affected by Mastocytosis or Mast Cell Activation Disorders as well as their families, caregivers, and physicians through research, education, and advocacy.

Program Goals

The goal of this CME/CE offering is to increase understanding of mastocytosis and mast cell activation disorders so that they may be recognized soon after onset of symptoms leading to more appropriate and effective treatment. An additional goal is to stimulate further interest in these rare disorders.

Remember to register with AAAAI at <http://education.aaaai.org> for your CMEs PRIOR to this activity.
